Classroom Teacher :

Putthipat continues to do very well academically in IP1. He has a very good command of the English language, and he usually understands things very quickly. During most of the semester, Putthipat really had a hard time paying attention during lessons. This affected his ability to work independently, as well as the quality of his work. We moved him into a desk by himself, and it has helped him to focus a bit better. He's having an easier time completing his work correctly and is socializing less during class. While Putthipat still has improvements to make, he is starting to make progress and is heading in the right direction. Keep trying your best, Mark! We know you can do it!
