Classroom Teacher :

Shina did very well during the second quarter. She has a great personality, and I've really enjoyed getting to know her better as the year progressed. Shina has made improvements in all the areas we asked her to. Her focus and attention during lessons has gotten much better, and it has helped her to become a more consistent contributor during discussions and activities. She has been working better independently and it has shown in the quality of the work she produces. Shina has a good command of the English language, and her vocabualry is growing consistently. She has even gotten better at eating her lunch and drinking her milk in a reasonable amount of time. You're doing great, Shina! Keep up the good work!
